21st Night of Ramadan

Tonight is an extremely sad night! We will remember Imam Ali (a) in his final moments.

Do not to laugh or joke tonight. Go over the A'amal that we did together on the 19th night and ask Allah (swt) to make your heart stronger.

Pray that we are always following in the footsteps of our Holy Prophet Muhammad (s) and Imam Ali (a) and their family.

Write a letter to the children of Imam Ali (a) on this very important night:

Dear Imam

I have now completed the A'amals for the Nights of Laylatul Qadr in this Holy Month of Ramadan. May Allah (swt) be pleased with me!

But there is still one thought left...

I wonder where my Living Imam, Imam al-Mahdi (may he reappear quickly) is tonight. Somewhere, he is sitting reading my book of deeds.

I wonder if he is smiling when he looks at all that I have done this year, or whether there are tears in his eyes. I know I can do more to be more prepared and ready for when he reappears. I want him to know that I'm trying and I will keep trying! I want him to know that I love him and want to be one of his companions when he reappears.

I think I'm going to write a prayer for him...

On a separate piece of paper, write a letter to the Imam. Ask your mum or dad to help you bury it or tie it to a rock and throw it in a lake.

I begin in the name of Allah (SWT) the Most Kind, the Most Merciful.

Oh my Imam, may Allah (SWT) bless you! I am writing to you, asking for your help. You are my Imam, and I wish to write to you about what scares and worries me, and what I wish for the most. I know that I cannot solve these difficulties myself, so I have knocked at Allah (SWT)'s door and yours. Your status is closer to Allah (SWT) than mine, and I know that you will ask Allah (SWT) on my behalf, to help me.

I pray to Him that He solves my difficulties quickly, and provides me with comfort, and guides me to success in this world and the next.

Write your wishes and troubles for the Imam to help you with. Don't forget to pray for your parents and family, and your faith.

cut along the dotted line

Peace be upon you, Oh Imam.

During these difficult times, I ask again that you pray to Allah (SWT) on my behalf. Allah (SWT) is the Most Powerful, and I accept whatever He wishes. He is the Great.
